

Rich thinking – Summer update

This is the twelfth year of Rich Thinking® research! It's been a busy 2021 so far:

As always, we had a big launch on International Women's Day. The 11th edition of Rich Thinking, Hear me roar: Smart women share investing success stories was released at a virtual launch event on March 8th in Stockholm, sponsored by the amazing team at KvinnoKapital.

The IWD celebrations continued with The 51 and CFA Society Calgary hosting a one hour webinar featuring me presenting the highlights of the 2021 report followed by a lively Q&A with The 51's founder Shelley Kuipers. As an activist in business, entrepreneurship and investment, Shelley is a kindred spirit who is hell-bent on defeating the status quo one project at a time.

For those who want to hear the high level findings from all of my Rich Thinking research over the years, here is a 30 minute webinar hosted by my friends at Mission Cloud in Los Angeles.

Rich Thinking and ESG investing have some huge overlaps; after all, women invest in causes and concerns that matter to them! I co-presented at the CAiP pension conference in Toronto on ESG along with Aline Reichenberg Gustafsson, CFA who is the Editor at NordSIP – The Nordic Sustainable Investment Platform. Read about it here: Join the Cool Club!

The pandemic's effects have fallen disproportionately on women, however Covid-19 has been a catalyst and change accelerator in many areas. Across four important spaces, it has catapulted women into dramatically better financial situations.

Have you ever wondered about the myths around women and investing? Have a listen to this fun Yieldstreet podcast featuring Jane Barratt, Meredith Jones and I sharing our thoughts on this important topic. Here is the corresponding article I wrote for CFA Institute.

I continue to write regularly for CFA Institute's Enterprising Investor, Golden Girl Finance, and Canadian MoneySaver magazine. All of these articles, plus international media coverage, podcasts and videos are on my site.

Thank you to all the men and women who have supported Rich Thinking research: I can't wait to share next year's report. Global interviews are well underway.

Happy Summer to all!

Barbara
